Advanced Concept Design, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 210 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Starting in Shawnee, Oklahoma, in 1938 and ending in Dime Box, Texas, this is the story of a journey through 75 years so far in the life of an Oklahoma Hills hillbilly. During Mr. Scott's 1st 3 years, his parents moved 3 times, which he claims set the pattern for his rather nomadic style of living. From 1944 through the summer of 1955, Richard lived on a 3-acre plot of land some 2+ miles west of Wewoka, Oklahoma. His tales of country living during the 1940's and 1950's are as educational as they are entertaining. After attending the Wewoka public schools 12 years, where he was a 3-sport athlete during all 4 years of high school, Richard went to Abilene Christian College on a full football scholarship, where, as he puts it, he majored in football. Graduating in August, 1960 by retaking 2 courses by correspondence, Mr. Scott taught middle school science one year in Mountainside, New Jersey. He returned to Texas in 1961 and taught high school sciences, coached tennis and football, drove a school bus, and was chairman of the science department three years. During this time, he married the love of his life, Esther Wright, a farm girl from outside Beeville, Texas. They have three children; Richard, Jr., Rhonda, and Roxie. All are married. Rhonda has three sons. Another year teaching chemistry in Amityville, New York was followed by a year preaching for a small church in Thyatira, Mississippi. The ending to this year was exciting, to be brief and conservative. Returning to Long Island, New York, Mr. Scott taught high school chemistry six years, then returned again to Texas. He taught junior high science a single semester in 1972 before joining the Whataburger...
