Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Biennial Report of the Adjutant General, of West Virginia, 1899-1900 Holding the opinion that a National Guard should always be considered from the standpoint of use by the Nation or State, it is and has been my endeavor to do everything possible to prepare and equip ours for that end. The professional soldiers of the Republic, the Regular Army, are organized, equipped and drilled in accord with the highest standard of military science, and being our exemplars we are striving along the same lines to emulate them so that when our troops are called upon to serve with them there need be no changes in instruction or equipment. Our organization is now the same as that of the Regular Army. It has been the effort of this office to have such a body of officers and men as shall physically and mentally be equal to those of the Regulars and we are working to accomplish this end. The National Guard should be the first reserve line of the Nation, prepared to support the Regular Army when...
