AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2005. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Tired of selling out his principles as a corporate attorney for a silk-stocking Detroit law firm, Jeremy Jefferson seeks a change of venue as a public defender in rural Michigan. But the peace and quiet of small town practice is shattered when Jeremy is assigned to defend Zeb Radamacher, a high school anarchist charged with eco-terrorism for firebombing a local superstore development. As the governor s office uses Zeb s case to politicize terrorism and Zeb s supporters are bent on starting a small revolution - conservative prosecutors, judges and jurors are the least of Jeremy s worries. In the fearful atmosphere of post-9/11 America, Jeremy s own life and liberty may be on the line.
