SAGE Publications Inc, United States, 2001. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. ` This is an invigorating and very thought-provoking text, that I would recommend to all early years professionals, parents and citizens interested in developing their understanding of early years philosophy in action, which is directly linked to a compelling research paradigm and deep reflection alongside a sound theoretical base - Early Years ` I would recommend this book to practitioners interested in reflecting on their own practice and approach to assessment. The insights provided are thought-provoking and promote a practical and positive approach to early years assessment - Early Talk ` This thoughtful book challenges the standard assessment process that is commonly employed within the context of early years provision. For any practitioners working in early years setting this is a powerful and exciting book that helps to remind us that the child must be placed centrally within the assessment process, not as a recipient but as a proactive contributor to the situation - Child Language Teaching and Therapy ` This is a highly relevant text as some UK early childhood educators become engulfed with avalanches of tick sheets! A most useful book which contributes to the current vital debate about when, what and how we should assess young children s progress - T.A.C.T.Y.C Newsletter ` I found Margaret Carr s book fascinating. the ideas and arguments put forward are well worth mulling over - Early Years Educator ` This is an inspiring book from bilingual, bicultural New Zealand about revolutionizing the assessment of young children s learning and progress. I hope this book inspires United Kingdom practitioners to set out on learning story journeys - Nursery World ` This book manages to blend recognized theory and recent research with practice. I found it easy, and sometimes enjoyable, to read; it provided...
