It is just this possibility of promiscuous use that has caused some interests to be antagonistic to the principle of the many-trip package. There is a deep prejudice in some fields against even a remote possibility of substitution. This feeling would cause opposition to any proposal to repeatedly send back for replenishment a distinctive form of container. Thanks to the ingenuity shown in devising seals of various kinds, however, means are now at hand to guarantee the inviolability of almost any type of package after re-filling. It is recognized that progress in any particular field in favor of the idea of the many-trip package will be dependent largely upon trade customs or the willingness of manufacturers of containers to conform to this idea. In their investigation of the slack-filling of packages, government officials found that a considerable proportion of the firms that were following this practice were not in sympathy with the idea, but they felt compelled to follow the plan because competitors were doing so. The normal consumption of rosin in this country is about 1,800,000 barrels. P. O. BELCHER, Consumers Power Co., Jackson, Mich. V. W. BERGENTHAL, Wagner Electric Mfg. Co. St. Louis, Mo. G. P.
