St. Martin s Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Reprint. Language: English . Brand New Book. A sweet, touching view of the evolution of love and friendships. For readers who enjoy Kristin Hannah or Luanne Rice. -Library Journal The years spent at summer camp are indelibly etched on your heart. Can you ever really say good-bye to the place that made you who you are? This is the question that haunts three generations of women when a desperate, homeless teenager turns up at the campground they all used to call home. Now it s up to the former Firelight Girls to help her. There s Laura, who once believed in marriage but no longer knows if her own is worth fighting for; Shannon, who spent the summers of her youth as a camp counselor and is now directionless after her career implodes; Ethel, the camp director whose heart has been broken beyond repair; and Ruby, who betrayed Ethel years ago and is still looking for a chance to make amends. Can these women all come together and find a way to save a young girl for whom all hope seems lost--and recapture their own dreams along the way? Generous.big-hearted.irresistible. --Marisa de los Santos.
