Vs; The Ku-Klux: A Few Suggestions Submitted for the Consideration of the Business Men and the Working Men of the North Majority of the other third. They are connected with similar combinations in other counties and States, and are no doubt a part of a grand system of criminal associations pervading most of the Southern States. The members are bound to obedience and secrecy by oaths which they are taught to regard as of a higher obligation than the lawful oath taken before civil magistrates. They are organized and armed. They effect their objects by personal violence, often extending to murder. They terrify witnesses, they control juries in the State courts, and sometimes in the courts of the United States. Systematic Spying is one of the means by which the prosecution Of the members is defeated. From information given by officers of the State and of the United States, and by credible private citizens, I am justified in affirming that the instances of criminal violence perpetrated by these combinations within the last twelve months, in the above...
