This is an award-winning thriller of international proportions, that will keep you on the edge of your seat wanting to read it till the end, and we will not reveal its ending. The setting is a beautiful remote tropical island resort, secluded for security and safety purposes due to the fact that ALL the leaders of all the countries of the world arrive for what is billed at the WORLD PEACE SUMMIT; a conference designed to one and for all design and agree on a framework to end all conflicts and wars between nations forever. In addition religious leaders and others are invited to attend to add to the events success in establishing forever a framework of never having any more conflicts between nations. The United States sends its best warships, every kind of security detail imaginable to make sure that the conference is highly defended and secure from any possible threats. Aircraft patrol the skies, warships the ocean, and ground forces make sure that nobody can possibly cause a security breach of the conference or threaten its VIP attendees...
