Xulon Press, United States, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This treatise in booklet form [without chapters] is an evangelistic and apologetic view of one of the most important aspects of WORSHIP in the Church. Should we or should we not serve a meal, an Agape meal, at the Lords Table? This author contends that we should. For the Lords Supper is to be a clear presentation of the Gospel itself. A genuine CELEBRATION [versus a funeral-like atmosphere] of the forgiveness of our Sin Debt and a rejoicing over our salvation, our passing from death unto life. And our JOYFUL anticipation of Christs imminent return. The issues of the Christians ministry to the poorer of the brethren, what we can eat and drink at the Lords Table and publicly [Christian Liberty] is clearly spelled out and amplified in this easy to read exposition of the Lords Supper. A Must Read for Christians of all denominations.
