John H. Small (chairman) presiding. The Chairman. Gentlemen, the committee will kindly come to order. This is the morning that we have assigned to a delegation from Mobile, Ala., and we are ready now, Mr. Gray, and I will ask you to kindly take charge and indicate the gentlemen who desire to be heard. Mr. Gray. Mr. Chairman and gentlemen of the committee, as stated by our chairman, we have before us to-day certain gentlemen from Mobile, representing the commercial bodies of that port, who are to talk to us about the necessity of an increased appropriation for this great harbor upon the Gulf. They have come here under considerable disadvantages; you know something about the weather conditions. In fact, they have come through ice and snow to get here and were about 12 hours belated. They are extremely anxious about this...
