LEARNING FROM SCANT BEGINNINGS: ENGLISH PROFESSOR EXPERTISE

Cranbury, New Jersey, U.S.A.: Univ of Delaware Pr, 2008. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 1st Edition. Although teaching is perhaps the central public activity of most university English professors, one finds surprisingly little research in the specifics of expert professorial practice that are not either the end products of successful teaching, or the conflation of expertise in the subject matter with pedagogical expertise. This case study describes the moves an expert professor makes in a semester-long process, of reaching a literature...
