STRAWBERRIES AND PANCAKES ON SUNDAY MORNING (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .My family s story is a story of survival, tenacity and occasional intransigent endurance that allowed them to survive and ultimately flourish. There was no other choice. In 1979, I moved to Los Angeles. My parents and I packed up my car and my mom and I began our journey from New Jersey to Los Angeles. For us, there was always time for a road trip! My father stood in the driveway with tears in his eyes and said You know, your mom and I did our best and you kids have led a charmed life. But it s not always going to be strawberries and pancakes on Sunday morning. As we drove off, my dad stood in the driveway, waving goodbye, with tears in his eyes. Halfway across the country, we experienced some mechanical problems with my car and had to spend some extra time in Newton, Iowa. I remember taking the car to the Ford dealer for repair and the mechanic commented on the New Jersey license plate. Where is that?, he asked. Ah hah! It was confirmed. Dorothy was no longer in Oz! The rules of our household were simple. Eat your vegetables, do your homework, and listen to Count Basie! The recipes and photos in Strawberries are my parents , grandmothers , my and mine. The stories are our stories. The love that went into writing this book is reflective of the love you felt when you walked into our home and my home today. It is a warm journey into a time when there were no cell phones or tablets, and conversations were not interrupted by ringing phones and incoming text messages. Strawberries and Pancakes...
