

Ben, His Helmet and Bees in Your Bonnet (Paperback)

By Nelle Frances

Nelle Frances, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . (9-12 yrs) is about school Sports Day and the Asperger child. The book also includes a range of puzzle pages that children love to solve. Ben is confused! Mr. Pellum thinks he has a bee in his bonnet but there aren't any bees in the classroom and he wears a hat, not a bonnet! And if that's not bad enough, Ben's just remembered that it's Sports Day on Friday! The Ben and His Helmet series are an awesome resource for your child on the Autism Spectrum! They're also a must-have resource for classroom teachers supporting a child with Asperger's Syndrome. These books are social stories, set in a mainstream classroom, reinforcing desired classroom practice and social behaviours, while encouraging the AS child to self-manage their behaviour. The series offers problem-solving strategies easily implemented by the child on the Autism Spectrum.
