SHADES AND SHADOWS: A PARANORMAL ANTHOLOGY

Xchyler Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 336 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.8in. In the dead of night, you sense something . . . other . . . beyond your sight, out there in the darkness. You feel a breath upon your neck, cold and clammy, fecund with mold and decay. Your hair stands on end from no random chill. The air is still. No one is there. Travel with nine talented writers into their paranormal world, but dont disregard that inkling that niggles somewhere in the pit of your stomach to leave the light on, to shun that dark room, and to pull the covers over your head. Whatever you do, dont look under the bed. The Music Man: An ill-begotten ghost story and a childs disappearance has haunted Peter Holt his entire life. His one wish: face his personal bogeyman and right a terrible wrong . . . and perhaps find the key to laying his childhood demon to rest. China Doll: Nothing stays broken in Kris small town, but someone always pays the price. Kris must decide if she is willing to do so when her beloved doll is shattered, and discovers deep secrets about her family in the process. Split Ends: The love between Frank and Bets has never been physical, as the entire town knows. But when Bets faces heartbreak and turns to Frank for comfort, their choices open up a whole new realm of possibility. Child of the Underworld: Starving for love and affection, Lara escapes her mothers bleak realm to feast on the light, color, and sound of the world upstairs. But only one thing sates her rapacious appetite and threatens to banish her to the darkness forever. The Cost of Custody: When a child goes missing, Jonathan Alvey, PI, knows none but...
