Dunham Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 206 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. At a weekly visit to her friend s office in Los Angeles, an artist, Kristian James, begins to talk about some sketches she s done that are about to be featured at a local art gallery. She reveals to her friend that she did the sketches as a sort of therapy for a tragedy that happened in her childhood, involving what most people from home considered to be an urban legend, known as the Witchyman. After years of trying to distance himself from his dark past, the big new city opens up a lightless world of degeneracy that surprises even him. He is easily seduced by the nocturnal...
