Excerpt from The Information in the Matter of the Price Charity: Filed in the Supreme Judicial Court And the said Attorney General, at and by the relation aforesaid, further informs your Honors, that said Price, intending to make a comfortable provision for his family, consisting of his wife and his nieces Sarah Creese and Margaret Creese, out of his personal pro perty, and to permit and enable them and the survivor of them to continue to live for the residue of their lives in his mansion-house as they had been accustomed to do for many years preceding his death, if they should choose to avail themselves of the privilege; and, after the decease of them and the survivor of them, to set apart the said real estate as a fund to sustain a pious and benevolent trust and charity for the public objects aforesaid; did on the thirtieth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy make and publish his last will and testament, a copy of which with the codicil thereto is to this information annexed. And the said Attorney General, at and by the relation aforesaid, further informs your Honors, that in said will said Price declared that he did humbly commit his soul to God, and did most humbly beseech Him to receive it, not relying on any merits of his own, but only through the Atonement and Satisfaction made for lost man kind by His Ever Blessed Son, Jesus Christ, and through His Merits and Mediation alone did humbly ask pardon of all his sins, hoping for a joyful resurrection at the next personal appearing of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ,...
