Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Political Duties of Christians: Report, Adopted at the Spring Meeting of the South Middlesex Conference of Churches, April 18, 1848 First and fundamentally wrong has been our legis lation upon the subject of Slavery. Commencing with a lie in our right hand - that man could hold property in man - and incorporating the spirit of oppression with the very Constitution that proclaims its own design to be, to promote the general welfare and secure the blessings of liberty, we have never returned to the path of integrity and simple honesty. As political expediency was then deemed paramount to the claims of Right and Humanity, so has it ever been considered since. As the Slave Power has urged its exorbitant demands for the strengthening and perpetuating of this terrible institution, the nation has done little more than accede and do its dreadful bidding. We have abrogated the right cyf trial by jury, in the case of the suspected runaway, be he black or white; made the Louisiana Purchase, at the cost of fifteen millions of dollars and without the sanction of the Constitution, that we might have territory from which Slave States might be carved at leisure; by the Mis souri Compromise, we extended the same blighting curse over millions of fertile acres in the great Valley of the West expended forty millions of dollars in the Florida War, to reclaim the trembling fugitive from oppression, and break up his retreat among the ever glades and friendly Seminoles; by the Annexation of Texas, in plain violation of treaty stipulations and the provisions of the Constitution, new territory has been added, equal in extent to two hundred such States as Massachusetts,...
