Excerpt: .Co., and known throughout the entire industry in the eastern section of the country, died recently at his home, 1406 Linden street, Allentown, Pa., as a result of complications following a nervous breakdown last Labor Day. Mr. Kuhn started his business career as a sfchool teacher, and later obtained a position with the Atlas company at the time of its organization about twenty-one years ago, and remained with the firm ever since. He was held in great esteem by the trade and his death came as a blow to his! many friends. William H. Wuchter. William H. Wuchter, general foreman of the Coplay Cement Co. s mills for many years, died recently at his home near Laury, Pa., following the contraction of pneumonia from a heavy cold. He was sixty-eight years of age and had spent his entire business career in the cement industry. He retired about three months before his demise following the death of his wife. A number of years ago the Bourbon Stock Yards Co. of Louisville, Ky., found that the oft recurrence of fires had defeated the hope of expansion or greater progress, or anything like profit in the conduct of the business. Very little permanent concrete work of this kind had been done up to that time, so the management really is entitled to the distinction of pioneering the method of construction. The extensive concrete improvements put in eight years ago have not only been the sample and model...
