The act required an assessment of the adequacy and accuracy of FAA s cost-accounting system and practices as of December 31, 2002. We recommended that FAA: (1) establish an agency performance goal to implement cost-accounting and labor distribution systems that are compliant with Federal standards by October 1, 2004, and make successful implementation of the system a precondition for awarding executive bonuses; (2) specify and implement the internal controls to be added in the Cru-X labor distribution system; and (3) make FAA-wide cost and performance management practices an agency priority and commit appropriate funding to fully establish these practices by October 1, 2004. FAA concurred with all recommendations.
