Partridge India, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .He wasn't an all perfect-hero of the story; in fact, he wasn't a hero at all. All of a sudden, the 14 years old school monitor realized that he had fallen in love with someone he met years ago. The boy didn't know what exactly he could do at the time; the girl Aaradhya had settled to a far away land. The only thing he prayed for was to let him meet her once; he never wanted anything else in his life. On one fine day in winters, God finally listens to all his prayers; he comes to know about her account on Facebook. With the passage of time, they become good friends. Everything was fine until he reads a message which he believed was sent by her; until he had to choose between his best friend and her. Every decision he chose became a little contribution to the guilt he suffered. For some people, life has a different meaning. The pages witness the story of a person who acknowledged one such.
