VIRTUAL LOVE (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Devon Shaw is a popular film student at Paradise City College, whose reputation as something of a player precedes him. While he is popular, he s also talented and hardworking, and he wants to make sure that his scholarship pays for his film studies since his parents, who are newly divorced and just starting a new period in their own lives, don t take his studies very seriously. The only person who ever encouraged him was his old online friend Hanscee, with whom Devon doesn t speak to anymore. Hans Jensen didn t even want to move to America in the first place, but after his stepdad died, his mom made an executive decision for them both. They were going to move to New York and they were going to start their lives again there. Hans found it hard to fit into this new country until he found an online friend who he could talk to for hours and about anything. While Hans needed help with adjusting to America, his new friend FilmDevon, who lived down in Florida, needed help navigating his difficult home life and his parents impending divorce. But when Hans had tried to take it farther, FilmDevon had started to ignore him and Hans had decided to move on and forget that part of his life. Now that Hans is at Paradise City College, he fully intends to do that. That is until he runs into Devon, an attractive student who of course reminds him of his old online friend turned crush. When Devon asks him to model for some pictures, Hans says yes, thinking that this is going to be his first experience with a man. But...
