A Thorn in My Flesh (Paperback)

By Joan H Richardson

Xulon Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Joan Richardson enjoyed the anonymity of being Joanie on the contemporary Christian radio show known as Man Alive! The nationally and internationally syndicated program aired for nearly nine years, from 1975-1984. Man Alive! was the tool of God's workmanship as two people, Mike and Joanie, became one through both marriage and ministry. A powerful turning point in her life occurred at a Kathryn Kuhlman meeting in 1974: . . . We stood at our places as she continued, when a deep audible male voice spoke to me. The sound came from behind or above me; not from a man, this was a supernatural moment. He said, She is not going to be living much longer; I am going to give you her mantle. Lacking preparation to hear these words, at first I resisted. I could not accept that the evangelist had not much longer to live. Stunned, I thought, How can that be? Of all people, why would God choose me? With my history? His words astonished me. I nearly heard myself respond, No! No! At the moment, I wasn't sure....
