

An Irish Fairy Tale (Paperback)

By Pam Nastali

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book was written for 9 years old to 99. The entire series is ongoing through 6 books. In Book 4 the fairy queen, Danielle, is kidnapped and taken to Ireland by her betrothed. The team must follow to rescue her. The high priestess and seer warns them that they will have to deal with the Irish fairy queen, Aina who is the mother of Gearold Fitzgerald, Danielle s betrothed. Aina wants her son to marry the American fairy queen, so she can gain royal privileges on two continents. However, Gearold has fallen in love with a mortal girl and has plans of his own. He was once half mortal himself, until his mother turned him into a fairy. He rides the rim of the loch in hopes of melting the silver shoes on his horse, which he believes will return him to his mortal form. When the team arrives, they get involved with this six hundred year old legend and their mission changes as Aina threatens Elizabeth s family. Aina employs a warrior clan to do battle for her...
