By Janice Hood

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 320 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. Stiletos to Stetsons is a modern day true romance story with a twist. This is a fascinating and compelling true story that Janice has written about the path that her life took beginning on one cold January afternoon when she suddenly and unexpectedly became a widow. The story ends some seven years later by which time she was now living in Texas and was the wife of a cattle rancher. She describes the emotions and experience of being suddenly widowed with depth and passion. As her story evolves, she is able to give a British woman's take about life on a Texas cattle ranch, describing the funny, frightening and bewildering incidents that occurred to her. The story begins on the day that she came home to find her husband a local sporting celebrity, lying dead on the floor. It was a bizarre day and she describes the occurrences and emotions that surround that time and the ensuing days with sensitivity and realism. Within a few days, she had discovered devastating secrets about her husband and realised that she had been...
