Soldiers, do your duty, said the officer in a commanding tone. We are driven to this painful necessity, and must not make the slightest delay. Hark! what shout was that. Noble courtiers away! away! We must all away with the utmost speed. Quickly bring the princess along. Hark! again! Surely some of the insurgents must have poured into the capital! The courtiers stayed not to hear another word. They made a simultaneous rush towards A the door, and left the apartments of the princess with the utmost haste and confusion. The rest of the palace was in a few moments deserted, with the exception of a few domestics, who had secreted themselves, from having no inclination to follow the others. Retire with thy men, cried out the princess to the officer, in an imperative tone, nor dare to put thy threats...
