The Makkarios training team returns, plagued by internal strife and old scars. They are meant to be preparing for their next big mission, a world study assignment to Jinxs home world Ginhana, but distractions abound. Trumans ex-girlfriend Elzbet is back in his life and determined to have him for herself, even if that means breaking apart his current team. While Elzbet makes herself odious to everyone in the team, Jinxs mentor Rai begins behaving strangely, even by his own eccentric standards, raising serious doubts among the trainees as to his trustworthiness. Jinx already has troubles enough, just facing the trauma of returning to her home world. It falls to Truman to step in despite the personal danger and bring Rai back to his responsibilities as mentor. Then Mango calls Truman and Rai to a secret viewing of Jinxs recruitment footage. The coming assignment is more than it appears, as is Jinx herself. Only by learning about the tragic events that led to Jinxs arrival at the Center can the two generalists prepare themselves for the Ginhana mission. Neither...
