Daily Possible. Paperback. Condition: New. 280 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. The founder and optimist-in-chief of Daily Possible, William Yelles has a miraculous story of spiritual communication. Grounded in universal truth, his messages of hope and healing inspire thousands on Facebook and around the world. This book contains everything he's received from a series of sacred encounters. Open to any page and be inspired. Embrace the magic and mystery of finding the perfect words you need to read in a particular moment. From the introduction: The first day God spoke to me was Yom Kippur, the holiest on the Jewish calendar. But unlike the religious Jews dressed up fasting and praying to Him all day, I was soaking up the sun in shorts and flip-flops, devouring a maple-glazed donut -- with bacon no less -- contemplating what movie to see at the mall that afternoon. Scrolling through showtimes on my phone, I began to feel a vague uneasy restlessness until it grew into a strong compulsion to head home and relax somehow. A few years earlier, I may have chalked it up to guilt. But I had given up formal religious practice some time ago, and had no repressed desire to suddenly change into a suit and tie and hustle off to synagogue. Once home, something inside me told me to pick up a pad of paper and pen, although I had no idea what for. Describing the indescribable is an inexact science. The best way I can think of is that I started feeling words. It was as if they were appearing inside me from somewhere rather than I was consciously creating them myself. I started writing, or more like transcribing. At times it felt as if I could barely keep up with the pace of the flow....
