S. pension examining board of this district and is the physician of the Bridgeton Board of Health. He is a member of the Cumberland Medical Society, of the Medical Society of New Jersey and of the American Academy of Medicine. He has served as president of the Cumberland Medical Society and has for seven years been its reporter to the State SocietyDr. Elmer is a trustee of the West Presbyterian Church. J. C. APPLEOATE, M. D. During a residence of only a few years in Bridgeton Dr. J. C. Applegate has become well known as a skilled practitioner and has won, by his deserving, an enviable place in his profession. Dr. Applegate is a Gloucester countian, having been born near Hurffville on February 19, 1861. His father soon afterward removed to a farm near Harrisonville, where the lad was raised and which became his home until 1881. He had the usual life of a country boy. In the Summer he worked on the farm; in the Winter he attended the public school and, later, Prof. Norris school at Woodstown. When he was 20 years of age he was granted permission to teach in the public schools of the county, and for several years he followed this vocation at the villages of Jefferson and Mullica Hill, a few miles from his home. He was very successful in this, a fact which was noted in the local papers at the time, but he had determined upon a...
