Toplink Publishing, LLC, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. This third volume of the Johnston-Anderson Family Story is a fast-paced adventure of world travel, a life threatening viral epidemic and self-discovery, based on real life experiences. This last book in the trilogy features the fourth generation coming of age, spanning adventures in the North American and African Continent. The story is full of surprises as it connects the family's 100-year-old past to the present. Joy's two adopted children Salome and Moses are now adults and as they embark upon their occupations on two different continents, circumstances throw them together for a project which changes their lives beyond their wildest expectations. Their close family ties also lead them to learn about forgiveness, expectations and building a legacy. They are confronted with the impact of unexpected brushes with death and meeting with inspirational people. Our perpetually favorite couple Marshall and Kathombi Anderson make plans for passing to future generations the biggest lesson of their lives. What seemed obvious to begin with, suddenly becomes something completely different, as people and choices change with time. Unexpected? Yes. Delightful? Absolutely!.
