

Make a Home for Each Other: A Manifesto of Civitas (Paperback)

By Lawrence W Arrington

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . There are four books in a continuing body of work about renewal of the principles and values of democracy, which the author labels Civitas. The two foundational books are: The American Adventure: Rediscovering Civitas for a Renewed Democracy, Vol. 1, and The Cosmopolitan Uprising: Rebuilding Civitas for a New America, Vol. 2. The American Adventure explores in historical context a clash of two systems of ideas. These are labelled civitas and tribalism. Positive change of the nation s direction demands rediscovery and practice of the ideas of civitas, which rest on the principles and values of democracy. These governance and moral principles arise in world history from philosophy and the world s great religions. Called for is a renewed political theology that brings the best of the past into the present on behalf of the future. The Cosmopolitan Uprising brings to life ideas explored in the first book, using case examples taken from the bellwether state of Florida as well as observations about national and global conditions. Called for is a Cosmopolitan Uprising, which is the nation s best chance for...
