Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Kael Logan was born and raised on the lower east side of New York City during the late eighteen hundreds. These were tough times and Kael found himself involved in a gang war between the Italians and Irish for control of the city. After his childhood buddy was murdered and a vendetta was placed on Kael's life he fled the city. He traveled west in search of gold but instead found himself in another war. This time it was the battle of Glorietta Pass during the beginning of the Civil War. Ironically, this opened the door for Kael to become a U.S. Deputy Marshal. These are the accounts of his life and times as a peace officer. His younger Brother Ronny Logan would eventually join up with him, as they traversed the rough terrain of the Old West. Kael and Ron were frequently assigned to protect the interests of the railroad tycoon Jay Gould. This assignment would lead them to encounter many famous and infamous people of the era. The life of a U.S Deputy Marshal was often short lived and rarely celebrated. These men were instrumental in bringing civility to the wild west. They were underpaid and unappreciated for the most part but were true heroes in every sense of the word.
