By G K Chesterton

Benediction Classics, United Kingdom, 2012. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This Omnibus edition of g K Chesterton s writings includes the following complete and unabridged classic books: The Everlasting Man. What makes the human uniquely human? This is the question that G.K. Chesterton starts with in this exploration of human history. Chesterton responds to H.G. Wells, affirming the uniqueness of being human and the message of the Christian faith. Chesterton refutes the idea of Social Darwinism, which claims that we have been gradually evolving from the barbaric to the civilised state we currently find ourselves in. He sees Christianity as a blend of reason and story, which satisfies both the mind and the heart. Orthodoxy. Chesterton explores right thinking and explains how it led him to come to faith. This is a very personal account of his conversion, but Chesterton makes it clear that for him it was as a result of his scholarly examination of Christianity s arguments. Heretics. Chesterton is at his very witty best in this collection of twenty articles. He focussed his brilliant mind on heretics, prominent figures who Chesterton considers theologically wrong, including Kipling, Shaw, Wells, and...
