Since that time over 370 meetings have been convened with arts and cultural organizations, neighborhood residents and property owners, representatives of constituent organizations having an interest in the Midtown Cultural District, and elected officials. In October of 1986 the expanded and diverse community group formally convened as the Midtown Cultural District Task Force, followed in 1987 by formal designation as the Citizens Advisory Committee for the Midtown Cultural District. Community meetings and briefings covered issues such as creating cultural facilities, providing growth opportunities for Chinatown, historic preservation and reuse of existing buildings and theaters, transportation access, open space planning, workforce planning, environmental impact, building height and density, district urban design, day care, building affordable housing and neighborhood business opportunities. Comments on all aspects of the Midtown Cultural District Plan and zoning were requested of the community. The Boston Redevelopment Authority has received over 100 letters from area residents and organizations indicating specific suggestions to improve the plan and the zoning. The sense of the comments are listed below by issue. The Boston Redevelopment Authority and the Boston Zoning Commission recommended and adopted a Downtown Interim Zoning Plan in September of 1987 which required the creation of a plan for the area known as the Midtown Cultural District. An initial draft of the zoning plan was released on July 14, 1988. Over 30 people testified...
