By Vincent Morales

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 52 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. I'm confident that this material will shed some light on the very touchy subject that is Marijuana use and consumption in the private and public sectors. I will share my knowledge and experience regarding marijuana laws, law enforcement, the executive team, and employees, among others. I spent my time in the California and Colorado areas dealing with this topic. I have been a Director of Security for many years and for very famous and prominent businesses which included famous hotels and a very famous mansion. Most employers are very hands off when it comes to marijuana but the changes in the law require them to adjust their policies and procedures which if you are a Security Director or Security Manager you have written many of your marijuana company policies. In this book we will cover a variation of topics dealing with marijuana. We will discuss how to deal with law enforcement and other stakeholders. I will discuss mainly my experiences in Colorado dealing with marijuana and some additional information from California. Whatever state you're in I believe many will follow...
