Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A legendary crystal entangles two reluctant lovers with the help of an eccentric aunt and a mystical Indian. Celeste Jordan knows nothing about gems so she questions why she sees a mark on hers that no one else can see. Rock Foster, a mineralogist, rockhound, is skeptical. As a scientist he doesn't believe in legends, but he'd heard of crystals that hold knowledge for a privileged few. Reluctantly, he agrees to take Celeste to the desert dig site where he found the gem. Little did the loner know his life would be turned upside down and that love would knock down his door. As an image consultant, Celeste always looks her best. Dirt, sweat, and outdoor showers have never been a part of her life. But she's determined to get to the bottom of the mysterious gem and its affect on her, even if it means leaving the comforts of home for one night. Although attracted to the ruggedly handsome Rock, she knew nothing could come of it. They were each married to their careers and their worlds were miles apart. But when Mother Nature twists up a storm that changes all their plans, one night turns into another, then another.
