The Hight Priestess represents an opening into oneself so that we can make conscious contact with unexplored areas of ourselves. She is the Mistress, the reserve, the discretion and the silence. While The Star is a chant to emotional freshness, not to be afraid to enjoy everything around us, to the healing of the spirit thanks to a waste of sensations, to the possession of peace of mind. The Magician, number 1 of the traditional Tarot cards, is the beginning of everything, the magic touch that puts things in operation, and the facts. It is the alchemist, the conjurer, the one who possesses the power of action, who drives what has not yet begun. Do not let yourself be influenced by others and follow your own ideas, you are the master of your own life. Little by little the meaning of all Rider Waite cards is revealed, which are distinguished from other decks by the symbolic beauty of their figures and natural divination. The Fool is this young man who is represented in the card, that with his few belongings, what he has lived up to now, on his shoulder, faces the unknown, urges us to make the leap, not to be afraid.
