

The Prisoners of Breendonk A World War II Concentration Camp

By James M. Deem

HMH Books for Young Readers. Hardcover. Condition: New. Fort Breendonk was built in the early 1900s to protect Antwerp, Belgium, from possible German invasion. Damaged at the start of World War I, it fell into disrepair . . . until the Nazis took it over after their invasion of Belgium in 1940, calling it a reception camp for prisoners in transit from one camp to another. It soon became one of most brutal and smallest concentration camps in World War II. About 3, 500 prisoners were held there only about half of them survived. As one prisoner put it, I would prefer to spend nineteen months at Buchenwald than nineteen days at Breendonk. With access to the camp and its archives and with rare photos and artwork, James M Deem pieces together the story of the camp by telling the stories of its victims Jews, communists, resistance fighters, and even common criminals for the first time in an English language publication. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Hardcover.
