SESSIONAL PAPER No. 36a Mr. Bodwell. -- You wont agree to give up the union. A Mr. Wilson. -- Surely they have the right. Mr. Dunsmuir insists on his right jo do what he pleases with his own property, and they insist on doing what they like with their own person. His Lordship. -- Their position would be much more favourably considered by the public if they insisted on joining a Canadian organization which the laws of Canada could in some way control. If they undertake to thrust themselves on an employer as members of a foreign organization, where there is no control, it is a different question. Mr. Rowe. -- At the same time I think it should be taken into account that most members of unions are members of an international body. His Lordship, -- Their constitutions differ very materially. Witness. -- I will tell you what would be...
