I have always been fascinated with the history of World War II, and the Nazi concentration camps are a large component of that history. Utterly despicable and inhumane, places like Auschwitz stand as testaments to the cruelty that we of the human race must stand against. This book perfectly outlines the atrocities that were committed there, and does not pull any punches in telling how everything happened. - Dan S. (Boise, USA) Textbook-like detail in a short book. That s how I would describe this account of the Auschwitz concentration...
