Date :2010-3-1. In recent years, children read the temperature, the parents of the child's reading more and more attention, more and more children's literature books welcome young readers. In fact, reading and writing are inseparable, reading a large quantity of children, in general, good writing skills, while children will be writing, and they all love to read. But children's book market, writing the book fish, authenticity is hard to give children a sense of dazzling. It should be said, some were writing the book series is still very good. In particular, some excellent primary and secondary school language teachers, they carefully studied child psychology, but also create their own experience, while a variety of language teaching requirements clear in mind, so they can a selection of some very targeted writing books, but the Most writing books too particular about the practical, cultural and emotional penetration is not enough to give the reader a heavy tools of consciousness.
