Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Do you ever wonder what God has to say about a subject? This book is a concise discussion covering virtually all of the major doctrines (teachings) of the Bible. Today, too many people are biblically ignorant. Over the last several generations, this increasing ignorance has led to a rapid cultural shift away from biblical truth which is being supplanted by humanistic philosophies. Why is this? Because God's Word is not revered, read, understood or followed as it once was. The Word of God must be returned to its place of final authority in our lives in these uncertain times regardless of cultural pressure. It is vital for Christians to know and apply what God says in the Bible in order to develop a solid Christian worldview and counteract the increasingly humanistic culture that surrounds us. This book is a practical, readable, systematic and thoroughly biblical tool for the new convert, the mature Christian, or anyone seeking to understand what God says. With twenty concise lessons and an extensive index, it can be used as a reference or as a course for personal or group study. As an apologetics tool it can affirm one's faith and answer questions, misunderstandings, and confusion concerning cults and false doctrines that are contrary to God's Word.
