You see them all the time, again and again in film, the bit players and the background players. They populate the small screen as well, in commercials and regular programs. The Other Side of Stardom, by Aimee Bratt, tells the story of one of these omnipresent faces, Aimee herself, who has been in show business for over thirty-five years. Though her main occupation was as an airline stewardess, Aimee has played parts in films from Raging Bull to Presumed Innocent. You may never have known her by name, but in this book you meet this upbeat person with a slew of entertaining tales.
