Blood is Blood Christian McClain and Anna Spencer are a married couple who hunt paranormal evil. They met while stationed in Iraq. He was a Navy Seal and she was an Army sniper. They were the best. One winter night, tragedy occurred when Christian s parents nearby home burned to the ground. No trace was found of their bodies. The investigation was thorough but only resulted in a missing persons listing with a suspicion of foul play. Shortly after the disappearance, however, Christian received a telephone call from a psychic named Esther. She told him that she had been having dreams about his parents disappearance. She believed the perpetrators were demons. Following Esther s clues and expert advice, Christian and Anna began a search for his parents. They completed extensive research on the supernatural. They assembled weapons of every variety necessary to destroy the evil they might encounter. They took special steps to prepare for the challenge, both physically and mentally. As their hunt led them into increasingly dangerous encounters with spirits, demons, ghosts, and a host of other paranormal beings, Christian and Anna s goal expanded. While never abandoning their search for Christian s parents, their ultimate mission became doing their part to rid the world of supernatural evil. Guided...
