The Choir Press, United Kingdom, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. A compelling story that will immerse you in the passions, hatred and ferocity brought by the Roman invasion of Britain. Entwined in this drama is a convulsive love that struggles to survive being thwarted on all sides by angry prejudices and superstitions. But it is a love so potent it irrevocably changes the lives it touches, bringing both joy and despair. The story is told through the eyes of its three main characters: Caesernius is an experienced, battle-hardened Roman career officer determined to make his mark in the world who has long regarded women as a recreational pleasure. Cresalena is a strong-willed, passionate and vivacious Celtic noblewoman whose looks enthrall men. She is self-assured, independent and shrewd. She is intensely loyal to her father Conubus a well-respected Celtic chieftain of proven bravery.
