THE GUARDIANS OF STAVKA (PAPERBACK)

Three Mile Point Publishing, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A GATHERING OF GOLD HUNTERS For sixty years rumours raged on Canada s west coast that a large gold cache belonging to the murdered Tsar Nikolas II was lost in a sunken ship. In 1979 when a weekend hunter discovers an ingot in a remote mountain cave it triggers a flurry of international gold seekers. The Tsar s cache of 110 tonnes is worth three billion dollars. Dimitri Komadze, deputy chairman of the dreaded Russian KGB seeks to correct his father s fatal mistake in losing the gold; Alex Plastiras, a disgraced US Marine now working as a mercenary for exiled Romanov interests, launches an airborne unit to get the gold. Then there s Harry Travis a reluctant Canadian Secret Service operative who finds people are not what they seem-in fact some are either ruthless lovers, deadly killers-or both! Colonel Ilya Orlov, a guard s officer with sworn loyalties to a long-dead Tsar, founded a secret community called Stavka where the old Russian flag still flies. His beautiful granddaughter, part Russian, part Native Indian, has trained a bald eagle to hunt and kill anyone on demand. As he battles to pursue the treasure Travis discovers there is a dangerous secret hidden with the gold known simply to British and Canadian Intelligence as the Nikolas Consignment. This historical novel while set in the Canada of 1979 has a storyline weaving through actions in Chile, Sydney Australia, Prague, San Francisco, the Kola Peninsula in Northern Russia and Gori, Georgia, the birthplace of Joseph Stalin.
