Packed with cinematic escapes, explosions, crosses, and double crosses, it expertly captures a world of timeless intrigue, certain to leave readers wanting more. When Public Utility Commissioner Tony Angelletti takes a stand against the controversial Greenleaf Project, he angers the most influential men in the state and soon discovers their sinister alliances reach far beyond the borders of Oklahoma. Realizing he is in over his head, Tony turns to Sam Littlehawk, his lifelong friend and lawyer, for help and protection. Together they begin to unravel a twisted chain of lies and corruption that could ultimately cost them their lives. All too soon Sam is marked for death, wanted by the police, and caught in a maddening race for survival. As he pushes to find the truth, his adversaries push back with deadly force. With thousands of lives in the balance, Sam must use all his skills to stay alive long enough to escape their traps and win the dangerous game at hand.
