Outpost19. Paperback. Condition: New. 178 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.4in. THE WES LETTERS is an epistolary novel written from three friends to the elusive Wes Anderson. The story begins on a train and multiplies, composes, and fragments itself across the United States to Finland. Its about personal memory, its about gossip and philosophy, and its about pop culture and late capitalism. Its (not) about Wes Anderson. Its a generational vacuum full of hope and embarrassment. Writing into the sand hole that is Wes Anderson, three friends write their way almost to the limit of their engagingly ambivalent and indisputably brilliant personalities, thereby calling into question the certainty of anything. Follow their quest to the Finnish line! A gripping read. - Chris Kraus, I Love Dick This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
