On Ayers Hill a new reservoir was built, a pumping station was installed, new pipes were laid and Olympia was given one of the most complete water systems to be found in the West. Moxlie Creek Springs supplied the water. The Union Pacific, disguised as the Portland and Puget Sound Railroad Company, in May received a franchise over certain streets; the Olympia Railway Company and the Olympia Light and Power Company were given franchises for railway lines; also the Tacoma, Olympia and Grays Harbor--Northern Pacific-- in fact so many franchises had been granted that the council soon found itself the storm center of conflicting interests and revisions and amendments were made until, had all the lines been constructed, the streets would have presented an elaborate system of cuts and grades through which ordinary vehicles and pedestrians would have needed a guide....
